Simple Funeral Arrangement: Standardised Price List for Comparison

This Price List is only relevant to a family using our Simple Arrangement Service who is looking to compare our prices with those of a funeral director.

Sun Rising is not a funeral director, but we do offer a Simple Arrangement Service for burial, carrying out all the necessary elements, so a family does not need to engage a funeral director. On that basis, we are required to offer a Standardised Price List by the Competition and Markets Authority (CMA). It is laid out according to the CMA template.

Our Simple Arrangement Service includes all the necessary elements but no more, and as such the funeral can be very simple, low key and informal. It does not include many of the services that a funeral director can provide. For more information, please get in touch.
